

Stacey A. Wright

Board of Directors: Staying Positive Equals Amazing Kids (S.P.E.A.K.)

Stacey A. Wright was born in Brooklyn, NY, but moved to Philadelphia when he was 12 years old and was raised by his grandmother, Dorothy Holland (Nana) and Barbara Walker (Aunt Jean). Stacey attended Martin Luther King High School, where he graduated, then choosing to attend Shaw University.

While at Shaw U, Stacey became a Student Development Intern, a member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity Inc., and participated in many on campus activities. He majored in Business Finance and Accounting.

After leaving Shaw U, he worked in the banking industry for 2 years before realizing that he did not want to pursue that field any further. He decided that at that point in his life, his passion was in helping people. Stacey went on to work in the Human Services field for 22 years, working for two companies, and holding several positions during his tenure in that field. While working his regular 9 to 5, Stacey found time to find his entrepreneurial passions by starting several successful businesses such as; General contracting, accounting work, landscaping, private investigation, business manager for Lace It Up Dance Studio, and becoming a PA Public Notary.

He is currently serving in the capacity as Chief of Staff for PA State Representative Stephen Kinsey, in the 201st PA Legislative District, northwest section of Philadelphia, where they provide services to roughly 64,000 plus constituents.

Stacey's passion for helping people leads him to form successful partnerships with local businesses, non-profit organizations, and community members for the greater good of the community that he serves. With his role in local politics, and all of his entrepreneurial endeavors, Stacey stays true to his mission to improve the lives of those who need his help the most. His unwavering commitment to his career has not hampered the great relationship that he has with his children. Above all, family is very important to him and drives his motivation for success.
